

FAIRFAX RESOLVES

JULY 18, 2024

5:00 P.M. HISTORY BOOTHS

MARKET SQUARE

6:00 P.M. PROGRAM

Join us on July 18 – exactly 250 years after British colonists in Virginia wrote radical and influential words that forged the path to revolution.

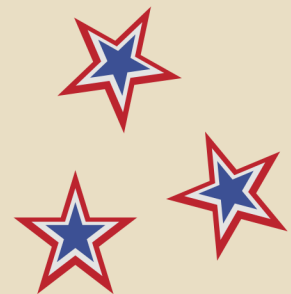

The evening includes history booths, a marker dedication, the United States Army Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps performance, and remarks by reenactors portraying George Washington and George Mason.

Keynote remarks will be given by Carly Fiorina, Virginia's National Honorary Chairperson of the Virginia American Revolution 250 Commission.

Partner Organizations

- VA250
- Office of Historic Alexandria
- George Washington's Mount Vernon
- George Mason's Gunston Hall
- Carlyle House Historic Park
- Fairfax Resolves Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution

alexandriava.gov/Historic

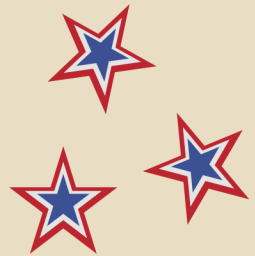

ADDITIONAL EVENTS

FREE Outdoor Exhibition at Carlyle House

Tuesday, July 16 through mid-September

Explore the garden while learning about the 25 Resolves advocates.

novaparks.com/parks/carlyle-house-historic-park

Signature Lecture at Gunston Hall

Wednesday, July 17

Join in a conversation with University of Maryland professor, Dr. Holly Brewer, on the Fairfax Resolves and its impact today. Reception to follow. $

gunstonhall.org

Special Events with Fairfax Resolves Sons of the American Revolution

Thursday, July 18

Various events throughout the day at Gunston Hall, Mount Vernon, and Pohick Church. FREE

fairfaxresolvessar.org

Specialty Tours at Carlyle House

Friday, July 19th - Sunday, July 21st

John Carlyle, George Mason, and George Washington are names still known today but who were others and what stakes did they all have in signing this document?

Registration is required for this 10am or 2pm tour. $

novaparks.com/parks/carlyle-house-historic-park

Trivia and Tours at Gadsby's Tavern Museum

Saturday, July 20 - Sunday, July 21

Tour the taverns and spin the wheel to answer a question related to the Fairfax Resolves - perhaps you will go home with a prize! $

alexandriava.gov/GadsbysTavern

The Origins of the Revolution: 250th Anniversary of the Fairfax Resolves

Wednesday, July 24 - Thursday, July 25

Join emerging and leading historians for a two-day conference which will examine the origins and causes of the War for American Independence. $

mountvernon.org

For reasonable accommodation, contact Nicole Quinn at historicalalexandria@alexandriava.gov or call 703.746.4554, Virginia Relay 711.