

Alexandria Campaign on Adolescent Pregnancy

The Alexandria Campaign on Adolescent Pregnancy (ACAP) is dealing with one of the highest pregnancy rates in Virginia. Working collaboratively with youth, families and professionals, we want to reduce teen pregnancy in Alexandria by:

ENGAGING youth with innovative technology and creative programs.

ENCOURAGING teens, parents and the community to have open and honest conversations about sex and teen pregnancy.

INFORMING the community with public awareness campaigns on safer sex, abstinence and parent-child communications.

EDUCATING teens, families and professionals on adolescent pregnancy and sexual health issues.

SUPPORTING the community with resources and programs for teens, teen parents and their families.

PARTNERING with agencies and community-based organizations to provide comprehensive teen pregnancy prevention services.

KEEP IT 360

A Teen Campaign Sponsored by
ACAP, the Alexandria Sexual Assault
Center & the Substance Abuse
Prevention Coalition of Alexandria

DID YOU KNOW?

- + 3 out of 10 girls become pregnant by age 20.
- + Comprehensive sexuality education programs help young people delay sexual initiation.

WHAT IS 'KEEPIT360'?

It's a movement. It's a circle encompassing teens, parents and others in our community. It's a series of discussions to encourage open and honest conversations about sex, relationships and other important health issues that impact our young people.

WHAT CAN TEENS DO TO HELP?

Get involved! Become a Peer Advocate and make a difference in your community by leading real, honest and open conversations with your peers. Aren't able to be a Peer Advocate? Then join one of the many events hosted by the Peer Advocates. Find us on social media and join in our commitment to helping Alexandria's teens have safe and healthy relationships while reducing the teen pregnancy rate.
