Notes:

- Presidential Primary: The 2011 Session of the Virginia General Assembly changed the Presidential primary to the first Tuesday in March rather than the second Tuesday in February (24.2-515). The next two Presidential Primaries will be March 7, 2028 and March 2, 2032.
- The 2020/2021 General Assembly moved Primary elections from the second Tuesday in June to the third Tuesday in June (24.2-515.1).
- Alexandria Mayor, City Council and School Board elections are held in November every 3 years. Primary elections for Mayor and Council are held the third Tuesday in June of the same year. School Board Members do not run by party, they do not have a primary.
  - Mayor and City Council run by party, however, they do not get party designation on the ballot. They are considered “local” offices (24.2-640).
  - In 2009, City Council approved moving the Mayor/Council Election from May to November beginning with the 2012 Election. The next Mayor/Council/School Board elections will be November 2, 2027 and November 4, 2030.
- US House of Representatives (two-year term) every even year as follows: 2026, 2028 and 2030.
- US Senate (six-year term) elected in even years as follows:
  - Tim Kaine was elected November 2024. Next election dates for that Senate seat will be 2030 and 2036.
  - Mark Warner was elected November 2020. Next election dates for that Senate seat will be 2026 and 2032.
- Virginia State Senate is elected for a four-year term in odd years as follows: 2027, 2031 and 2035.
- Virginia House of Delegates is elected for a two-year term in odd years as follows: 2025, 2027, and 2029.
- Governor, Lt Governor and Attorney General are elected for four-year terms as follows: 2025, 2029 and 2033.
- Commonwealth’s Attorney and Sheriff are elected to four-year terms in odd years, 2025 and 2029. Commonwealth’s Attorney and Sheriff do not get party designation on the ballot. They are considered “local” offices (24.2-640).
- Clerk of the Circuit Court was elected in 2019 for a term of eight years (24.2-217) Next election dates for that office will be 2027 and 2035.
- The City of Alexandria does not elect its Treasurer and Commissioner of Revenue. They are appointed/hired by the city.
