CITY OF ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA

Clerk of Circuit Court

The Clerk of Circuit Court is a constitutional officer, who is elected city-wide to an eight-year term. The Clerk is responsible for over 800 statutory duties in the Virginia Code. These include processing and maintaining land records, handling probate and fiduciary matters, issuing marriage licenses, and providing courtroom assistance to Circuit Court judges in civil and criminal matters. The Circuit Courts are the courts of record in Virginia and the Clerk's office is responsible for maintaining permanent court and city records including land title and transfer records, marriage records, case records, and evidence files. These records date to the founding of Alexandria.

The Clerk's Office is organized into four divisions.

- The Civil Division handles case intake, issues licenses and permits, reviews and processes court-related filings, and staffs a customer service counter in the Courthouse.
- The Criminal Division drafts and processes court orders and criminal case-related filings and other matters such as search warrants and judgments, serves as liaison with Judges' Chambers, and handles appeals filed with the Virginia Court of Appeals and Supreme Court.
- The Land Records Division reviews, processes and records all real estate transactions in the city and collects the associated transfer taxes, as well as collecting court costs and fines related to criminal cases.
- The Probate Division carries out the Clerk's duty as Probate Judge, adjudicating testamentary wills, trusts and intestate estates; conducting guardian and conservator proceedings, and reviewing and analyzing wills, trusts and estate documents and preparing orders and appointments.

Staff from all divisions serve as Courtroom Clerks for the Circuit Court, where they are responsible for numerous duties from docket management and administering oaths to assisting the judges with drafting court orders. All Clerk of Circuit Court tasks are mandated by, and performed in compliance with, the Code of Virginia.

In FY2026, the Clerk was appointed as General Receiver for Alexandria by the Alexandria Circuit Court, upon the resignation of the prior General Receiver. The role of General Receiver entails significant additional duties, holding, managing, and disbursing millions of dollars on behalf of hundreds of injured minor children.
