

Take the Savings Route with Car-Free Transportation to Alexandria

Metrorail on the Blue and Yellow Lines: King St-Old Town, Braddock Road, Eisenhower Avenue, and Van Dorn Street. Check WMATA for current schedules and trip planning at wmata.com.

Metrobus: Lines: A71, F1X, F20, F23, F24, and P90 stop at King St-Old Town Metro. Check current routes, schedules, and fares at wmata.com.

Park and Ride: Consider parking at an outlying Metro station and taking the train into Old Town. Check WMATA for parking availability, hours, and fees at wmata.com.

Amtrak and VRE: trains stop next to the King St-Old Town Metro station Monday thru Friday. Plan your trip at amtrak.com or vre.org.

Free DASH Buses run throughout Old Town and connect to all Metro stations. All buses are ADA-accessible and have bike racks. Check current routes at dashbus.com.

King Street Trolley: runs between Market Square and King St-Old Town Metro every 15 minutes. Check dashbus.com for current hours.

Water Taxi: connects Old Town Alexandria, the Wharf, Georgetown, and National Harbor. Check schedules and purchase tickets at cityexperiences.com/washington-dc/city-cruises/water-taxi/washington-dc-water-taxi/

Capital Bikeshare has stations throughout Old Town. Pay per ride or get a day pass at capitalbikeshare.com.

E-Bikes and Scooters are available for rent throughout Old Town. Use the provider's app to find and unlock a ride. Ride on streets, bike lanes, or paved trails only. Sidewalk riding is not permitted.

Bike Trails: Several trails connect Alexandria to the surrounding region. Check the City of Alexandria bike map for routes and parking at alexandriava.gov.

See all your transportation options and more at alexandriava.gov/GettingAround

Take the Savings Route with Car-Free Transportation to Alexandria

Metrorail Five Metro stations serve Alexandria on the Blue and Yellow Lines: King St-Old Town, Braddock Road, Eisenhower Avenue, Potomac Yard, and Van Dorn Street. King St-Old Town is the closest stop to Old Town and the waterfront. Check WMATA for current schedules and trip planning at wmata.com.

Park and Ride Consider parking at an outlying Metro station and taking the train into Old Town. Stations like Huntington (Yellow Line) offer free or low-cost parking and a short ride to King St-Old Town. Check WMATA for parking availability, hours, and fees at wmata.com.

Amtrak and VRE Amtrak and VRE trains stop next to the King St-Old Town Metro station. VRE serves the Manassas and Fredericksburg lines Monday through Friday. Plan your trip at amtrak.com or vre.org.

DASH Bus Free DASH buses run throughout Old Town and connect to all Metro stations. Lines 30, 31, and 34 stop at Market Square, three blocks from the waterfront. All buses are ADA-accessible and have bike racks. Check current routes at dashbus.com.

Metrobus Alexandria is served by many Metrobus routes, and hours vary. Plan your trip and check current routes, schedules, and fares at wmata.com.

King Street Trolley The free King Street Trolley runs between Market Square and King St-Old Town Metro every 15 minutes. Check dashbus.com for current hours.

Capital Bikeshare Capital Bikeshare has stations throughout Old Town, including near Madison and Fairfax, Pitt and Montgomery, St. Asaph and Madison, and St. Asaph and Pendleton. Find your nearest Capital Bikeshare station, pay for a ride or get a day pass at capitalbikeshare.com.

E-Bikes and Scooters Dockless e-bikes and scooters are available for rent throughout Old Town. Use the provider's app to find and unlock a ride. Ride on streets, bike lanes, or paved trails only. Sidewalk riding is not permitted.

Taxi and Rideshare Taxis and rideshare services including Lyft and Uber operate throughout Alexandria. Rideshare drop-off and pick-up locations may be designated near the waterfront during events.

Water Taxi The Potomac Water Taxi connects Old Town Alexandria, the Wharf, Georgetown, and National Harbor. Check schedules and purchase tickets at cityexperiences.com/washington-dc/city-cruises/water-taxi/washington-dc-water-taxi/

Bike Trails Several trails connect Alexandria to the surrounding region. The Mount Vernon Trail runs along the Potomac River and connects to Old Town from the north and south. The Four Mile Run Trail links Old Town to Arlington. Check the City of Alexandria multi-use trail map for routes at alexandriava.gov.

See all your transportation options and more at alexandriava.gov/GettingAround